

Education

Education indicators offer valuable data and insights on various educational aspects, helping to track progress, identify areas of improvement, and guide policy and decision-making. In short, they are crucial tools for assessing and making informed decisions to improve educational opportunities and outcomes for all community members.

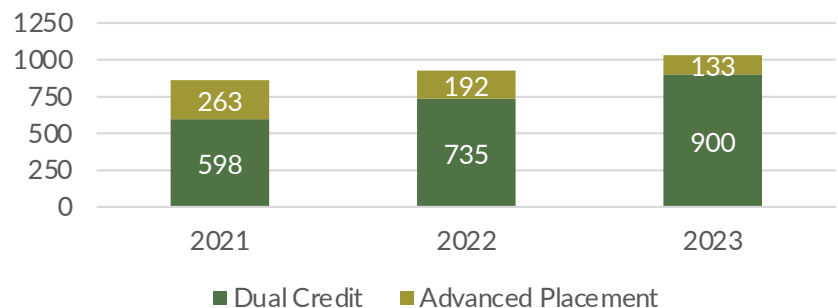

Educational Attainment 2019-2023

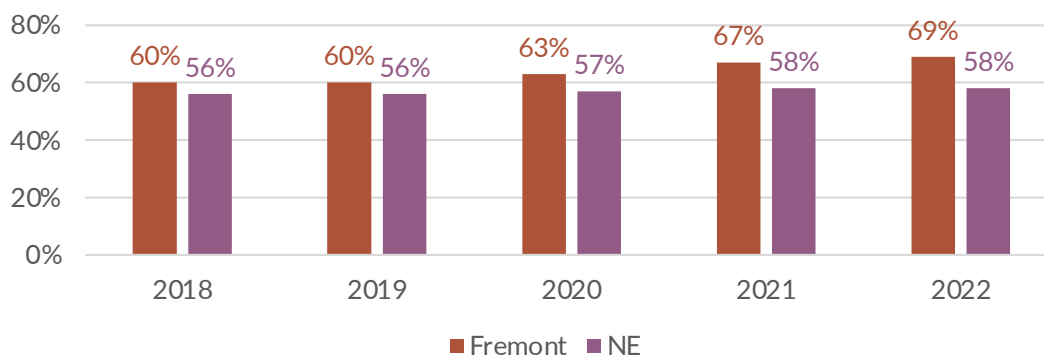

In Fremont, about two in ten people have a Bachelor's degree or higher, which is less than statewide (about 3 in 10).

The number of students enrolled in Fremont Public Schools grew by more than 600 students between the 2008-2009 and 2022-2023 school years.

Enrollments in Advanced Placement & Dual Credit Courses are Increasing

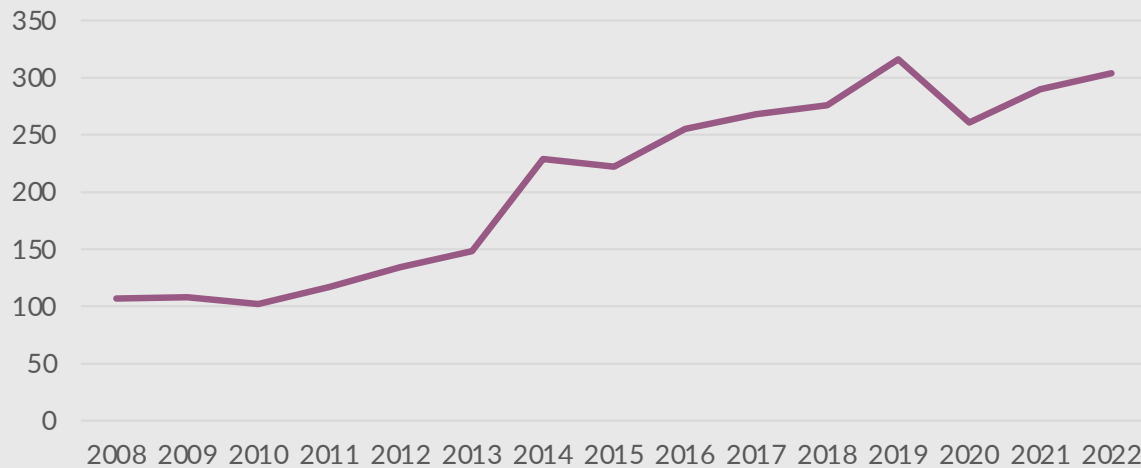

Teachers with Master's Degrees in Fremont Public Schools

The teacher retention rate in Fremont Public Schools is consistently above 90%

Students enrolled in pre-kindergarten

The number of Fremont students enrolled in Pre-K nearly tripled between 2008 and 2022 of Fremont-area Head Start students expected to enter kindergarten in the Fall are making progress toward meeting widely held expectations related to language, social emotional development, and cognitive development.

100%

16%

of K-12 students in Fremont are enrolled in a private school. The distribution of where students go to school, public versus private, is similar in Fremont to the statewide distribution.

Fremont Public Schools 4-Year Graduation Rates

Fremont Public Schools' graduation rates are slightly lower than state rates, but students continuing to attend school past their 4th year improve graduation rates overall.

FREMONT AREA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Data gathered by the Fremont Area Community Foundation and Partners for Insightful Evaluation. Fremont and Dodge County are served by the Three Rivers Public Health Department. Visit our website for data sources.

